THROUGH AT HEADQUARTERS DEDICATION.
 Washington, D.C. - Overflowing the new Central Office and crowding into adjoining rooms, local Esperantists and visitors celebrated the transfer of E.A.N.A. headquarters to this city Sept. 17. The visitors' Book was signed by 100, and 79 attended the banquet.

The new officers were installed by President Hetzel, Executive Committee Chairman Sussmuth, and his aide, Miss Carmen Sussmuth.

Rudolph Heman, violinist, and Deano McLaughlin, song leader, directed the music. Later a special reception was held by the Bonegularo in honor of President Hetzel.

The Central Office is in the heart of the business section. Secretary Gaines, Asst. Secy. Small, Treasurer Miss Kruka, Publicity Director Villareal, Special Assistant Miss Thume and other helpers are on duty daily to take care of visitors and inquirers.

NORTH AMERICA RENEWS INTEREST
 IN THE INTERNATIONAL LANGUAGE.

Sacrificing time for ordinary recreation, busy men, women and children are now learning the world's auxiliary language.

At Chicago, the annual convention authorized a campaign to enroll "Friends of Esperanto" on a scale larger than any previously attempted.

At Cologne, Germany, world leaders in convention arranged for the gradual merging of purely Esperanto organizations into a tremendous worldwide association.

The North American Esperantists have demanded a regularly appearing source of news. "Amerika Esperantisto" in the form of a monthly bulletin, conforms to present requirements. It will be read by Esperantists, friends, inquirers and others who have world wide interests.

TORONTO SEEKS 1934 CONVENTION.

Toronto, Ont. - Canadian hospitality will greet the North American Esperantists next summer if the city's invitation is accepted. The mayor and leading civic organizations have offered their cooperation.

SCOUTS OFFICIALLY RECOGNIZE ESPERANTO AT JAMBOREE.

Godollo, Hungary - Wearing the badge, "Esperanton parolas", boy scout samideanoj at the World Jamboree here attracted wide attention. In the presence of 200 scouts from 21 countries, and thousands of spectators, a camp-fire talk in Esperanto provided an effective advertisement. The scout authorities gave official recognition to the language.

WANTED - ORGANIZERS.

In South Bend, Indiana, a remarkable Esperanto Chapter has been built up during the past year. Intelligent men and women, girls and boys, have been attracted to it because their organizer has the knack of inspiring others to want to work with him. The organizer is Andrew I. Rogus.

Mr. Rogus has succeeded in work in which others, more fluent, more learned, more wealthy, have failed. He has succeeded because he likes people, and believes that Esperanto helps them.

Domineering leaders and sharp-tongued critics may build up mutual admiration societies, but the warm humanity of Rogus is building up an organization destined to have great power.

We need more such organizers. If your heart is right, you can do important work for a cause that is bigger than any individual. Working together, we can accomplish far more than the total results of our independent efforts. And the time given to such work brings happiness far beyond that won thru any diversion.

We have little time to spare - let us use it effectively. Let us make plans together. May I expect a word from you?

For progress thru cooperation,

Thomas F. Gaines

 Kaj la vespersonoriloj
 Kantas finon de l' labor',
 Tiam revas mi pri iu
 Kiu portas apud kor'
 Verdan Stelon, insigneto
 De mi malproksime for.

Ho rev' je vesperhor'
 pri tiu en memor'
 Portanta kun fervor'
 La stelon nur por mi.

WHAT IS THE JAPANESE VIEWPOINT?

Writing on World Peace in "Oomoto Internacia", Koogecu Nashimura says, "La blanka raso, kiu perforte okupis 8/10 de la tuta terglobo, certe ne havas moralan rajton fulmotondri kontraŭ Japanujo, kiu nur klopodas polici parton de Ĉinujo (sur la bazo de rajtoj ricevitaj de ĉinoj mem), sen iu ajn teritoria ambicio. Japanoj estas mallertaj propagandistoj...Tio venas el la antikva japana tradicio pri la Samuraja spirito, laŭ kiu viro devas agi, anstataŭ paroladi."

TO MURDER A FRIEND - OR TO DIE FOR REFUSING!
(A book review by Robert G. True)

One of the most interesting Esperanto books that has come into my hands recently is "Gyges kaj lia Ringo" which is Paul Benneman's translation of Hebbel's world famous drama of the same name, in German, written in 1850, and declared by critics to be the best poetic drama of that period.

The play is based on Herodotus' tale of the Lydian king, his beautiful wife, and his good friend Gyges, who is placed in a situation which compels him to decide whether to kill his friend or to submit to being slain himself.

Here we have a book which is a conclusive answer to any argument that the kara lingvo is incapable of poetic expression. It is a difficult book - as Benneman says in his antaŭparolo, only a master of the language could hope to derive full measure of enjoyment from it, and yet, with the exception of names from Greek mythology, fully explained in the Aldonoj of the book, I failed to find a single word not made clear in even so small a scope as the Edinburgh dictionary.

It is a book Esperantists should know and appreciate, and perhaps also use as a measure of their mastery of the language.
