VICTORY IN BRAZIL

Rio de Janeiro: Dr. Porto Carreiro Neto, general secretary of the Brazilian Esperanto League, announces a great victory for Esperanto in his country. The Postal and Telegraph Department of the Government has given official recognition of the international language by publishing a set of twenty post cards with views of the country, imprinted in Portuguese as the national language and Esperanto as the International. Brazil thus follows the lead of Lichtenstein and Hungary.

NAZI SPOKESMAN DENIES GERMAN GOVERNMENT OPPOSES ESPERANTO

Washington, D.C. December 14th. - - - - - Closing his address with the cry "Vivu Esperanto", Herr Gerrit von Haeften of the German Embassy, received tonight an ovation from 400 Esperantists and guests at the Zamenhof observance. Herr von Haeften denied that the Nazi government opposes Esperanto; it rather favors the spread of the movement and the ideal of harmony thru understanding.

First diplomat on the program, Mr. Edw. Weintal of the Polish Legation spoke on the "Homeland of the Majstro". Senor Don Pedro Rivero of the Venezuelan Legation and Mr. Tswen Ling Tsui of the Chinese Legation both spoke on behalf of their respective governments, strongly favoring the international language.

The former Persian Minister here, Dr. Ali Kuli Kahn, contributed stirring words urging removal of national barriers.

Entertainment included the Filipino String Ensemble led by the Esperanto propagandist, Dr. Mauro Baradi. Other artists were Ruloph Heman, violinist; Mrs. J. Stewart, pianist; Miss Florence King, soprano. The junior and senior dramatic circles presented plays and the Bonegularo sang.

Mr. Hugh Shatford was introduced as editor of the Amerika Esperantisto by General Secretary Thomas F. Gaines. Dr. Chas. Shellhorn was presented as Leader of Friends of Esperanto.

The Chapter reported an increase in regular members during 1933 from 17 to 107. Officers were elected for 1934: Mr. Ernest Dodge, president; Mrs. J.C. McDowell and Mr. Adriano Kimayong, vice-presidents; Miss Frieda Thume, recording secy.; Mr. J. Ernest Smith, corr. secy.; Miss Rose Matera, Treas. Reappointments were: Max M. Villareal, publicity director; Joseph Leahy, librarian & supervisor of classes.

The record attendance was largely due to the Junior Members directed by Miss Aminda Jo Kruka and to the efforts of Mr. H.B. Hastings, Mrs. C.M. Lewis, Mrs. L. K. Nogar and the entire Chapter.

SCHERER LAYS MUCH OF HIS SUCCESS TO ESPERANTO AIDS

Returning to recoup before his third U.S. Tour next spring, Jos. R. Scherer, our world-famous samideano with "the international stomach", looks back on a most successful second U.S. lecture tour. While globe-trotting as speciala deligito de Genevo (I.C.K.) thru 43 countries, his simplest plan four times out of five was to lecture in Esperanto. So effective an entree was Esperanto that he lays to it much of his success in obtaining the thousands of photos and facts which in turn makes effective his lectures on the intimate life of foreign peoples. Appreciative letters have flowed in from such institutions as Texas State College for Women, State Teachers' College in Springfield, Mo. and High Schools in Dallas, Texas, Ashland and Cleveland Hts., Ohio. Scherer's audiences keep his assistant busy selling Esperanto keys, 50-200 of which are always absorbed. S-ro Scherer is Fondinto and Dumviva Honora Membro of the Esperanto Club of Los Angeles.

ESPERANTO -- SECOND LANGUAGE

"Do you speak Russian?" is invariably followed by "Do you speak Esperanto?" when Russian police and customs officials are questioning new arrivals. So said Myra Page newspaper woman just returned from Russia when lecturing before a liberal group in Washington, D. C.

Takaoka Maru, when visited by 20 members of the local chapter. S-ro Tokuda speaks no English and learned Esperanto from books. Dr. Tamao Shimizu, ship's physician, is also an Esperantist now.

LINGVAJ NOTINDAĴOJ

LA ANGLA AFIKSARO

Sro. Fenton Stancliff skribis:-
 "Ekzistas en la angla lingvo multo da afiksoj samsignifaj. Iuj havas kontraŭdirantan signifojn. Aliaj havas samaj signifojn. La Konfuzo estas kompleta. Usonanoj tute ne konscias pri tio. Sed usonanoj ne scias tion kion anglaj vortoj signifas. Ne povus ekzisti alia klarigo por la skribaĵaĵoj kiujn ili legas. Notu la tridek kvin manierojn por esprimi nian finiĝon esperantan 'ulo, anto'.....

"WAT ES DIS DINGS?"

"Immer wen it do rain, nos alle complain of mis wetter!" It is not the Baron talking, but a specimen of a proposed auxiliary language. Vos you dare, Sharley?

Still another NEW attempt at an international language is recorded in the "Hungara Heroldo." Its Hungarian inventor publishes the grammar, filling 224 pages if you please, under the name Novlatino.

STOP, LOOK, LISTEN!

From Spain comes a letter in which 'volas' is spelled 'bolas', while Esperanto is spelled once "Espelanto" in a recent magazine (Far Eastern, of course). Thus betraying the unconscious urge to slide from the true pronunciation into local or national ones. We of Usono should vigilize the vowels of "kato" "mondo" "lundo" "birdo" etc., avoiding any semblance of short-A in cat, short-O in font, short-U in blunt, obscure I in bird. The value of spoken Esperanto as a "universala interkomprenilo" depends on a clear, precise pronunciation and an avoidance of the innumerable differences which make dialect. - - - E.G.D.

LA PREFIKSO "MAL" EN KATALUNA LINGVO

"En Kataluna lingvo troviĝas jenaj vortoj ĉe kiuj la prefikso MAL havas ĝuste la saman sencon kiu Zamenhof enblovis en la Esperantan prefikson:

KATALUNE	ESPERANTE
malagrados	malagrabla
agrados	agrabla
malapte	malkapabla
apte	kapabla
malbo	malbona
bo	bona
malcontent	malkontenta
content	kontenta
maldestre	mallerta
destre	lerta

Kompreneble la prefikso MAL ne estas uzata en Kataluna lingvo laŭ la sama reguleco kiu faciligas ĝian uzon en Esperanto, sed oni povas en Kataluna lernolibro pri Esperanto, komprenigi la sencon de la Esperanta MAL per tiuj kaj aliaj katalunaj ekzemploj."
