AL VERDA STELO GEFRATARO.

Karaj Gefratoj: Danke al neantaŭviditaj cirkonstancoj kaj mia propra eraro, la 3a kaj 4a VSG bultenoj ne aperis en "Amerika Esperantisto". La rezulto estas ke la direktoro preskaŭ perdis la kontakton kun la steloj. Do, ni necesas renovigi nian agadon kaj prepari planon por la novjara agado; tial mi petas ĉiujn membrojn kune aŭ aparte skribi al mi tuj, almenaŭ postan karton, sciigante ke ili ankoraŭ deziras daŭrigi la agadon, aŭ volas ŝanĝi, aŭ sugesti ion. Krome, ni devas havi du vic-direktorojn, --unu por orienta, alia por okcidenta parto de USONO, mi invitas la gefratojn sin proponi por ĉi tia ofico aŭ rekomendi iun por mia aprobo. Do, donu vi la signon ke nia Gefrataro ne estas morta. F.A. Post, Direktoro, Route #5, Box 606, Little Rock, Arkansas.

 A WORD TO THE NEWER READERS OF "ESPERANTAJOJ"

In 1937 EANA set up a department called "Esperanto-Rondo de Librolegantoj" for the purpose of adding further stimulus toward regular and progressive reading of the splendid literature which already exists in "nia kara lingvo" and with which many Esperanto students are too little acquainted. Each person desiring to register in the "Rondo" writes to Mrs. Frances McDowell, 1416 Allison St., N-W, Washington, D.C., (and sends six cents (6¢) in stamps, to cover incidentals) and gives her a list of Esperanto books (not lesson books) which the person registering has read, naming author and number of pages in each book so listed. In return the member receives a small green card containing one or more stars. Each star is like a "milestone" marking the end of one stage in your Esperanto career. It has the same sort of meaning for each of us who is thus registered that passing from one grade to the next in a public school has for all the pupils.

Naturally one's facility in reading increases with practice. Hence the reading of larger and larger amounts of the literature is required as the number of stars increases. This present article of reminder will say little about the well seasoned veteran readers who have placed many stars on their cards. There is, in fact, one member of the Librolegantoj who has already read more than 30,000 pages of Esperanto literature, and three or four others who have read more than 15,000 pages. But just now we wish to emphasize the earlier steps in the delightful and laudable process of becoming acquainted with the literature available in and through Esperanto. It is seriously desired that a great many more of those who have read no more than one or two hundred pages of the literature shall take the trouble to register as "One-Star Members" of the Librolegantoj. Somewhat later these will for the most part wish to qualify as "Two-Star Members", as until one has read at least five hundred pages of Esperanto he is in the position of one who stands on the shore of a lake full of attractive islands but who has not taken the trouble to take an easy trip in the sight-seeing launch and visit some of the islands. So here is the table of requirements for the more easily attained grades of the "Esperanto-Rondo de Librolegantoj."

One-Star, 100 pages; Two-Star, 500 pages; Three-Star, 1500 pages; 4-Star, 3000 pages.

It is believed that a feeling of modesty is holding back many who are qualified for One-Star or even for Two-Star membership. For that reason your name will not be published until you give permission. But EANA would be glad if frequently it could publish a short note reading like this: "From the city of YOURS there have been enrolled since previous reports 12 new members of the Librolegantoj, namely, eight in the One-Star grade, three in the Two-Star, group, and one Tri-Stelulo. In addition, four of the previous members in that city added an additional star to their cards." Here is a hint for new Esperanto students who have not yet read so much as a hundred pages of our attractive literature. The Central Office of EANA has a number of booklets in stock which are specially recommended for new students of the language. For a fuller list, see former numbers of "Amerika Esperantisto". For convenience just five of the most popular are here mentioned (including two of which the stock will soon be exhausted.) Any two of these booklets will more than cover the prerequisites for an "Unu-Stelulo" in the "Rondo de Librolegantoj."

WEDDING BELLS

Miss EUGENIA SICARD of Oklahoma City, and Mr. Reinhart Olsen of Staten Island, N.Y. were married Dec. 11, 1941, by Rev. Roy Rutherford, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Miss Clara Harrison and Mr. Eugene Brust attended the couple. A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Walker.

Hearty Congratulations-- in which we are quite sure that all who attended the 1941 EANA Congress will join us, and will all carry pleasant memories of Eugenie--and her very efficient work--of making everybody happy, and glad they had met her.

AN INTERESTING INNOVATION

George Irving Savage, whose home is Arlington, Mass., is now living in Ilion, N.Y., instead of sending out the usual card that is found in the store for seasons greetings, he sent a beautifully written 2 page letter, outlining his activities of the past year--Congratulations for something new.

LOS ANGELES ESPERANTO KLUBO

estas denove tre agema. De 1927 ĝis nun la klubo havis ĉiunmonate kunvenon en restoracio. En Nov. 1941 kunveno okazis en la nova hejmo de la klubo Prezidanto Joseph R. Scherer. La domo estis plenplena da gesamideanoj. Montriĝis lumbildoj pri Hindu-Ĉinujo. Ankaŭ funkcias semajna kurso por komencantoj gvidata de s-ro Charles Hornig; same semajna kunveno de Konversacia Grupo gvidata de samideano Peterson. Ambaŭ semajnaj kunvenoj okazas en la hejmo de s-ano Snell, nova kaj fervora Esperantistino.

ABOUT PLACING OF THE HYPHEN

When a word must be divided at end of a line it is desirable that this shall in no way damage the clarity of the sentence or the ease of reading it. Zamenhof inclined to be very liberal toward the users of Esperanto by allowing them to divide words in whatever way they found most convenient. He even refrained from interposing any absolute veto against carrying a single letter over to the next line, as "aparteni-s." But in tolerating such extreme license he was surely "tempering the wind to the shorn lamb." For that delayed "s" changes into a past tense what looked like an infinitive when first read. St. Paul in writing to one of his churches said, "all things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient." And the same principle can be applied to these Esperanto problems. It may be "lawful" to divide a word in a queer way, but it is "expedient" to avoid danger that the sense shall be obscured for even a split second. Especially it is wise never to divide one of the formative affixes, like "eks-", "ad", "eg", "ig", "il", "an", etc. Notice how in each case a false first impression would be created by dividing words as follows: "skribi-sto", "tranĉi-lo", "bone-gulo", "konstrui-ĝis", "manĝu-jo", "Meksika-no." That unpleasant slap in the face is avoided by the proper division, "skrib-isto", "tranĉilo", "boneg-ulo", "konstru-iĝis", (or "konstruiĝ-is"), "manĝ-ujo", "Meksik-ano." When the root itself must (or might) be divided, some authorities say to let a single consonant go always with the following vowel: "va-loj", "pa-ĝo", "kole-rema"; and to split between two consonants, with certain exceptions: "zor-gi", "sol-vi", but "pa-tro", "a-kvo" "pro-krasti". Such rules have no absolute or binding authority and may be neglected when a better division is possible. Many will feel (and not without considerable reason) that clarity after all is the supreme consideration, and that this makes it preferable to write "val-oj", "paĝ-o", "koler-ema". Such conservation of the undivided root prevents the reader from being in doubt on the root's meaning for the half second needed to return the eye to the left of the page.

BILLIONS FOR WAR!

HOW MUCH FOR PEACE? HOW MUCH FOR ESPERANTO?

Do we Esperantists really believe that Prevention is worth more than Cure ?

If we are certain about Esperanto's powerful influence for World Peace, then that should be reflected in our activities and in our financial support of Esperanto. EANA needs the support of every one of us in times like these and we should carry that responsibility cheerfully and well. In challenging days like these we should feel the urge not only to renew our EANA memberships promptly, but also to make additional contributions for the advancement of Esperanto.

THIS IS A TIME FOR SACRIFICE.

A number of EANA members did not wait for a special invitation from the Finance Committee to make their contribution; others responded generously when we made the needs of the Association known to them. These make the continued good work of EANA possible; they make the work of the Executive Committee and Central Office easier, and they have the hearty thanks of the Finance Committee. They get special mention on EANA's HONOR ROLL as PATRONOJ and SUBTENANTOJ. If you are one of these you have our sincere thanks!

Many more of our members pay their membership dues regularly and promptly, without any feeling of extraordinary virtue; knowing that they are getting more than their money's worth in return. But many members are neglectful even in the renewal of their memberships and their contributions never arrive, so they leave the burden for others to carry. In this group are some old experienced Esperantists who could easily take a bigger share of the load, and there are also some energetic younger folks who should be taking on more responsibility for EANA. If you are one of these we urge you to follow the good example of the Patronoj and Subtenantoj (listed above). Live up to your convictions and help prove your assertions about Esperanto's effectiveness by making a real sacrifice. EANA needs your support; your help is very important! How much does Esperanto really mean to you?

BECOME A PATRONO OR SUBTENANTO TODAY!

Eĉ nesupera elfarado estas senlime pli bona ol intencoj kiuj restas nur intencoj! Let's have a flock of new Patronoj and Subtenantoj to start the New Year RIGHT!

LET US FACE THE FACTS! WE HAVE A CHOICE TO MAKE!

At an earlier annual congress of our association, our regular membership dues were set at the present rates with the intention of attracting large numbers of new members. In this way we hoped to make ends meet without sacrificing quality or extent of activities of the national association. In studying the association's financial condition, resources and membership lists, your Finance Committee concluded that EANA should not need to depend on the generosity of a small number of members, but should henceforth place the financial responsibility where it belongs; squarely on the shoulders of each individual member. In order to carry on the work as we have been doing, or if we want to intensify our activities as an Esperanto organization we must face the fact that the number of ordinary members now paying dues is not sufficient to pay the way, and we are forced to solicit supplementary funds from our Patronoj and Subtenantoj. It is neither democratic nor safe, to depend on this procedure.

We should make a choice: We can either raise the dues of all members to the point where present numbers will amply cover necessary expenses. Or we have the alternative of rolling up our sleeves and getting busy to plug hard for EANA. This alternative calls for many more new active members. It calls for keeping our present members active, and it also calls for reviving many of the drooping samideanoj who have slipped from our ranks. We know of one town in Wisconsin where there were at least 60 paid-up members of EANA 10 years ago (there were also other members in several sections of the state) now our lists show but two members in the entire state. Similar conditions exist elsewhere.

These facts should move us to renewed efforts to bring these samideanoj back into the association and get them busy. Unless we are successful in all this we will have to embrace the other alternative mentioned, and this we certainly hope to avoid. It has been suggested repeatedly that there should be at least one member of EANA in each locality to represent our organization and serve as agent for new members, renewals and subscriptions. These representatives would have the goal of making their respective societies 100% supporters of EANA. By close cooperation with the Central Office and the Membership Committee these agents of EANA would do our association a great service and help us approach a sound financial status as well as assure the growth and spread of the Esperanto movement. LET US HEAR FROM VOLUNTEERS FOR THIS SERVICE.

KUNBRULIĜO

LENTE SED FIRME, la fajrego de la milito etendiĝas en ĉiujn direktojn kvazaŭ celante atingi eĉ la plej malproksimajn lokojn el la terglobo k' detruu eĉ la plej magnandan signon de paco, libereco kaj feliĉo. Kia katastrofo! Oni trakuru la tutan historion de la homaro, oni tra-serĉu la literaturon celante trovi ion similan ĉu verecan aŭ fantazian: la klopodo estos nepre vana.

Antaŭ kvin jaroj, kiam la hispana popolo pereis sub la suĝoj de la nazifasismo kiu tiamaniere faris la praktikajn provojn por tuj poste bii jeni kontraŭ la tutan mondon, al la voĉoj de peto je helpo oni respondis per deklaro je neŭtraleco, k al la avertoj pri danĝero por ĉiuj oni respondis per rideto de memsekureco.

Po unu, po du aŭ tri, ĉiuj tiaj blindaj, surdaj kaj stultaj skeptikuloj estis atingitaj de la monstro kaj malmultajn tagojn poste ĉu sklavigitaj aŭ romigitaj; tiele, multloke kie antaŭ nelonge loĝadis popolo pli-malpli feliĉa, oni vidas nun sur tomboj aŭ rubaĵo, malsatigitajn bestojn kaj kvazaŭ homajn ombrojn.

Pere de la lastaj okazaĵoj, la milito finfine atingis Amerikon. La dioj de la ruino kaj la malfeliĉo ne povis konsenti ke estu kontinento kie ankoraŭ regas la paco kaj kie oni ankoraŭ povas ĝui je homa vivo. La egaligo estis urĝa tasko, kaj jam komencis. Ĉu la intenco plene sukcesos estas la demando.

La blinda optimismo ne plu rajtas regi tie-ĉi aŭ ie ajn. Tiamaniere, la katastrofo atingos al ĉiuj, ĉu kulpaj aŭ senkulpaj. Ni estos devigataj, jam tion oni povas vidi, defendi niajn ekspluatistojn por eventuala kuna savigo el la ĉion for-mangantan drako.

Kia panoramo! Eĉ la plej pesimismaj profetoj el ĉiuj epokoj ne povis imagi ĝian nigrecon!...

Parolas la maistro

Nun, kiam en diversaj lokoj de la mondo la batalado inter la gentoj fariĝis tiel kruele, ni, esperantistoj, devas labori pli energie ol iam.

ESPERANTO ASOCIO DE ELMIRA, N.Y.

Mrs. Eliza Emery Smith, a veteran Esperantist, has been doing splendid work in reviving--perhaps it would be nearer correct to say "introducing" Esperanto in Elmira, conducting classes of young people, almost every evening in her home. The progress of one student stands out--he is Robert Taylor a High School boy who took up Esperanto less than two years ago. His proficiency in Esperanto won him the Boy Scout Interpreter's Badge, and later a scholarship in the select Northwood School at Lake Placid, N.Y. where he at once started an Esperanto class of several students. Another up-and-coming chap is Ralph Crabill Jr., who 'featured' with an illustrated lecture on the Life of Dr. Zamenhof, and Piano playing, at the Zamenhof Birthday social Dec. 15, in the home of Mrs. Smith, where a large gathering--ranging in age from 11 to 82--enjoyed Music, Songs, Games and Refreshments of various kinds.--Everything in Esperanto KOMPREENBLE. The Ass'n (E.B. Billings Jr. Prezidanto) has issued a beautiful folder with the U S Pledge of Allegiance in English and Esperanto. A recent issue of the Elmira "Star-Gazette" carried a very interesting Esperanto column. (space limits bans it here)

HIMNO POR ESPERANTISTAJ AMIKOJ

Vespervento sopirantaĵ
Venu el la fremda land',
Pri amikoj forestantaj,
Diru al ni atendantaĵ
Nin respondu je demand'.
Blucielo klinigante
Diru kion vidas vi,
Mondon kie rigardante,
Homon ĉiam prizorgante,
Gardu amikojn al ni.
Nokto stelelumigata,
Portu songojn trans la mar',
Diru pri la laŭd' amata,
Pri nacio, Di-benata,
Donu pacon al homar'.
Dio en ciel' logante
Gardu vi de supre nin,
En la mondo laborante,
En laboro esperante,
En esper', ni laŭdas Vin.

SOME ARTICLES that reach our desk are so good it is almost a crime to leave them out of "Am.Esp." One such now before us appeared in a recent issue of "The Emancipator", from the pen of Armin Francis Doneis. Oh well we console ourselves with the promise that it will appear in the February issue.

NUN LI SENTAS FLI BONE

(Semah Tarano).

Kiam la patro venis hejmen, lia malgranda fileto alkuris al li kaj ek-scite demandis: "Paĉjo, diru al mi, kiun vi amas pli multe, Beethoven aŭ Mozart?" "Por kio vi devas scii tion?" demandis la patro. "Bonvolu diri al mi," petis la knabo "Mi volas scii".

JOSEPH MILAN, Jersey City, N.J. assisted by Miss Doris Tappan and George Connor of New York, put on a fine Esperanto exhibit and demonstration in JERSEY.

"Bone, mi diros al vi," respondis la patro. "Mi amas Mozart pli multe ol Beethoven". "Bonege!" ĝoje ekkriis la filo. "La busto de Mozart ne estas rompita. Mi nur rompis la buston de Beethoven".

ESPERANTO ASSOCIATION OF CLEVELAND, OHIO.

We can always depend on good news from Cleveland where a group of young folks is "on the job" at all times. They held a very enjoyable celebration of Zamenhof's Birthday, and as usual the past few years, made a donation to the Cleveland Public Library for the purpose of adding Esperanto literature ( money instead of books, so that the library could take advantage of discounts not obtainable by others.) William P. Vathis, who for several years was "Mauch Chunk's (Pa.) lone Esperantist" is now a resident of Cleveland, and recently gave a very interesting lecture to a large assemblage in the YMCA auditorium, which resulted in many inquiries. Prof. Frank Tomich sends an interesting program of an entertainment in the YMCA Nov. 26, '41, which was attended by over 100--less than half that number was expected: Piano selections by Baroness Von Magnus, and Miss Jeanne Deeter and Master Adelbert Stamm. Songs--Mrs. Maria Von Magnus Mandel, Miss Marie Nichols and "The Audience". Clarinet Solo Billy Sheil. Interesting Talk by Dr. James Mohler (EANA fervorulo) The Prof. starts a new class of 15 Fenn College students. VIVU la EA de Cleveland.
