NEWSLETTER

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE....ELNA's President Frank Helmuth calls for your help in the ELNA "Each One Reach One" membership campaign. To survive and prosper, ELNA needs new members. Please act at once on his urgent letter sent to all members.

TRADING STAMPS WANTED....An essay contest to interest the younger generation in the international language will be financed by trading stamps. Send all you can to Bonnie Helmuth, 912 Skylark Dr., La Jolla, Calif. Details on contest and prizes forthcoming.

UN PETITIONS....There is still time remaining to collect signatures in this very important campaign, and make a decent showing for the U.S. Completed petition blanks should be forwarded to Paul Stein, Box 10001, San Diego, Calif. 92110 (in the West), or Margot H. Gerson, 29 Windsor Rd., Great Neck, N.Y. 11021 (in the East). President Helmuth succeeded in getting the signature of the Mayor of Yokohama. Many VIP's in New Zealand have also signed. What about your Congressman? Your local UN Association should be fertile soil for both signatures and support. Have you offered a talk?

THE GLOBE-CIRCLING MURRAYS did it again!...They caused a rebirth of Esperanto in the Philippine Islands. Watch HEROLDO and UEA's Esperanto for the accounts. Their newest contact: Mr. Tom E Cheng, 135 Rajaprarob Rd1, Bangkok, Thailand. Murray's latest address: c/o American Express, Tehran, Iran.

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR....Remember Dr. Rose Scolnick, who visited us from Argentina last year? This time it's her brother's turn! Dr. Jaime Scolnick will leave Cordoba, Argentina, on January 1, 1966, arriving in California September 1, 1966. His contact on the West Coast is Mrs. Elizabeth Rankin, 1771 Maryland St., Redwood City, Calif. We hope to see him in New York when he comes East.

RADIO....The 30-minute WEVD report by Mark Starr on Tokyo and Universal Congress (broadcast on Oct. 13, 1965), is available on tape, thanks to Mr. A. Estling, Walla Walla, Wash. Be sure to tune in the intermission interview with Mrs. Margot Gerson in program of Boston Symphony Orchestra, Nov. 21, at 3 p.m., on station WGMS, 570 on the AM dial, 103.5 on FM.
